

United Nations Association – Pasadena Presents

FRIDAY, JUNE 23, 2017, 7PM
“NOTES FOR BOOKS”
CHILDREN MAKING MUSIC TO HELP
CHILDREN IN REFUGEE CAMPS

CONCERT BENEFITS THE UNITED NATIONS’ ADOPT-A-FUTURE CAMPAIGN

Enjoy prize-winning young artists from the prestigious Colburn School as they make music to provide education not available to millions of refugee children around the world.

Westridge Performing Arts Center Auditorium

324 Madeline Drive, Pasadena CA 91105

Tickets can be purchased at the door or online at www.unapasadena.org under Programs: Adopt-A-Future.

Your ticket purchases and donations, with matching UN funds will provide educational opportunities to children in 60 refugee camps in 9 countries. For more information about Adopt-A-Future, please visit: <http://www.unausa.org/programs/adopt-a-future>. A small portion of the proceeds will also help fund UNA-Pasadena's premier leadership programs for our own local young people: the Model UN and Action

Ambassadors. For more information about Model UN and Action Ambassadors, please visit: www.unapasadena.org.

UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION of the United States of America
A PROGRAM OF THE UNITED NATIONS FOUNDATION

TICKETS

General Admission $20

Seniors $15

Student Pricing
$10

FOR MORE INFO, CONTACT:

MARTA STERN

Event Committee Chair

(626) 524-2959

Event Committee:

Leigh Adams

Ashley Andreou

Dr. Wenli Jen

Contact Information:

UNAPasadena@Gmail.com

www.unapasadena.org